

As a Satellite XM subscriber, I look forward to XM radio serving its SC viewers with local traffic and weather. If I am listening to XM on my way to work in the morning, why would I want to turn it off just to hear how the traffic is or isn't flowing? Since XM isn't a parallel competitor with broadcast radio and people subscribe to the service, they should be allowed access to as much information as possible.